Senior Class History

SEPTEMBER, 1945--Fifteen scrubbed and polished little angels entered the first grade room of Mrs. Josaphine Urpi. They were Bertha Marx, Irene Byler, Myra Bican, Ginny Frost, Jim Vins, Sally Blair, Jo Ann Bond, Bill Felberg, Carol Stetina, Louis Hogle, Ted Schienke, Virginia Baranyai, Jeni Soplata, Jane Nightingale and Pat Jackson.

This was the beginning of the long path toward graduation. Along the twelve years we've added twenty to our class. This brings the Senior Class of 1957 to thirty-five. Through the years we've a lot of memories--good and bad.

In the second grade Jack Swann, Mary Ann Phan, Doranell Mitchell, and Mary Lou Portman joined our group. This year we all remember making Indian costumes and had a pow-wow.

Starting in third grade that year was Jackie Tracy, Howard Kuhen, Phyllis Briggs, Dee Williams, Kenny Lewis and Lyman Davis. We started to write this year instead of print.

Jerry Bejbl and Fred Portman joined us in the fourth grade. Mrs. Prots was our teacher that year.

In the fifth grade we studied about the United States and each of us reported on a state which proved very interesting. Our teacher was Miss Susan Seith.

The sixth grade brought us to the half-way point. Six more years to go! Ellie Campbell and Roy Kure joined us. We all remember learning a number of poems that year.

The Junior High years were exciting, with Jr. High sports and running around like a real, live high-school student. But upper-classmen were another thing!

In the seventh grade Mike Waxler joined our happy little group. Mr. Florian was our eighth grade advisor and everyone liked him a lot.

In the ninth grade Jo Ann Bond joined us again after two years in East Cleveland. Jackie Blase and Eleanor Campbell left us and went to Regina. Doug Frank joined us that year. Mr. Burke was our advisor.

Chuck Evans and Liz Scafe started with us in the tenth grade. Jackie Blase and Eleanor Campbell joined us again. In May we held a spring dance to begin to make money for our Prom. Mrs. Sumner was our advisor.

In the fall of our Junior year we sold magazines, cards and wrapping paper for our treasury. We held the annual football dance in November. Richard Guella came to us that year. Our Jr-Sr Prom was held at Lutz's and our presentation of "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town", were the big events of our Jr. year.

Now our Senior year is drawing to a close. We have sold candy and ice cream, had a Fish Fry and presented the Senior play, "The Ghost House" to make money. Our Senior Class trip to Washington and New York was the biggest event of the year. Our twelve years have been happy ones that will be hard to forget in our future years.

Class Prophecy

Today, exactly ten years from the day the Class of '57 graduated from Newbury, we shall make a survey to see just what has happened to each member of the class. We shall start with the class president.

We have to go west to Montana to visit Doranell Mitchell. Do you remember when we were Juniors and Dory chipped her tooth on a tall boy's belt buckle? Who would have guessed she would marry him and have two lovely children (incidentally they're both spoiled).

Let's drop next door and see Virginia Baranyai, now "Cattle Queen of the West", who owns the biggest ranch in the world! Ginny was recently asked to co-star in William Waldon's latest picture, "Scrawled on the Squall" (any resemblance to "Written on the Wind" is purely accidental) but Ginny refused because she was needed on the ranch. Poor William was heartbroken and has now given up acting altogether.

Speaking of pictures, we must mention Carol Stetina who is a double for Marjorie Main. Her latest picture is "Ma and Pa Kettle at the Barber Shop."

While out this way we can hop over to Hollywood and visit Jane Nightingale. Jane is a model--one of the most famous. She models rings and bracelets with her expressive hands. Jane is married now but she uses her maiden name to avoid confusion.

And away we go to Nevada where Dick Guella owns a line of gambling casinos in Reno. "We hear you're doing quite well, Dick, how about it?" "Yes, yes, we pull in a million or so a night."

Say now, who is that down there? Why it's Jerry Bejbl digging ditches with a spoon! "You'll never get anyplace that way, Jerry" But we can't stop now, we have to hurry.

Myra Bican has now been married to George for a year. The poor girl had to hitchhike to Florida and since she never got a ride, it took her nine years to get there!

What do you think happened to Sally Blair? She is now treasurer of the United States. The age limit was lowered to 21 just so she could serve. As you remember she received a lot of her training at Newbury where she was class treasurer during her high school years.

Back in Newbury Phyllis Briggs has a fabulous shop for evening clothes. The secret to her success is that she makes her dresses completely upside-down. Then when they are turned right-side-up-- presto a Briggs gown.

Now there is Roy Kure working on roofs. Newbury is famous because of its outstanding roofs made from a new product which he has discovered and patented. There is a little poem about him: "Up on the roof-top with a pot of tar, is old Roy Kure--man, he'll go far".

Now we are passing the largest dairy farm in the world owned by Jim Vins and Lyman Davis. Lyman said he'd never be a farmer but I guess the call of the barn was irresistible. That figure over there in the field is Ted Schienke painting. Ted decided to become an artist after all the work he did on the Clarion. He is married now and has eight children.

Going a little farther we see Ginny Frost on her knees begging her husband, John, to buy her a washboard because the rocks in the stream near their house are all worn out. Irene Byler has just driven up and is now asking Ginny to watch her four children while she goes to see Verne. Irene, you see, drove Verne crazy and he had to be placed in an institution.

Marilou Portman has been "Swimming Champion of the World" since 1960. She would have made it in 1959 but when she got to the contest she discovered she had forgotten her suit so she was disqualified. Last week Marilou accomplished an unbelievable feat-- she swam the Atlantic Ocean in three weeks.

Her cousin Fred is an architect. He got his ideas from some of the subjects he took while in school. Fred's slogan is "No two houses alike" and so far he has really lived up to it.

After eight years, Jack Swann has gotten a job driving the paddy wagon for the Geauga County Sheriff. After riding in it so often he thought it would be nice to drive it. His assistant is Chuck Evans who also owns the Greasy Spoon Restaurant situated along the new Freeway that runs through Newbury.

Bertha Marx, after her term as Editor of the Clarion decided to be a reporter. Through the years she has worked her way up to copy girl and hopes to be a cub reporter by 1977.

After finishing four years at Kent State, Jackie Blase is now the Dean of Men at Harvard. This is one girl that will never change.

Liz Scafe is a famous children's photographer. Deloras Williams is employed as her "birdie" because of her talent for making faces. To improve her work, Liz sits in the corner and pretends she is a camera during her spare time.

Pat Jackson is Tennis Champion of the World. While at college Pat became interested in tennis and has been playing ever since. Pat married her high school sweetheart and they have three children.

Louis Hogue is a full-fledged veterinarian and after hours he practices operating on Howard Kuhen. Howard has bought his own private race track on which only Newbury boys are allowed to drag.

Jo Ann Bond decided, after two years at Kent, that she didn't want to be a teacher. So, after eight years of hard work, Jo has been promoted to head dishwasher at the Manor House. This is alright with her husband Wayne, except that their house is getting crowded from dirty dishes.

Jeni Soplatka is still engaged to Neal. She refuses to get married until they have $5,000 in the bank. To help make this money, Jeni is working as a weight lifter in Bill Felberg's carnival. Bill liked carnivals so much he decided to buy one so he could ride on the merry-go-round for nothing.

Let's stop in Shaker Heights to see Doug Frank and Ken Lewis. They are bachelors and live in a big house. They are coaches at Newbury and have the best team since 1950. We stopped in to say "Hi" and the door was answered by their butler Michael Waxler. Guess what was on the radio! Eleanor Campbell, Jackie Tracy, and Mary Ann Phan singing "When Irish Eyes Are Crying". They are known as Passion, Pride, and Prejudice. Besides being famous songbirds, they own half of Notre Dame College.

On this note, we will leave the Class of '57. May it continue to confuse world affairs!!!

Our activities during the year were arranging tournament games between the physical education classes, staging a play day in which all the schools in the county participated, and helping Mrs. Keller during the course of the year in her physical education classes. We went bowling every other Sunday as a group for an outside activity.

This organization has had much success in its first year of existence.
